NEWCOMERS RIDE: Sunday, October 11, 930am, Java Station, Doris, 968-3143. Everyone is welcome to join this leisurely paced ride around Goleta. We may stop and shop at the Farmers Market. No one is ever left behind. You must wear a helmet to ride with the Goleta Valley Cycling Club.

GVCC NOVEMBER MEETING: Thursday evening, 6pm, November 5, 6219 Avenida Gorrion, Lori Haney will be our host. For dinner we will build a pizza; for dessert we'll have a potluck, so bring something yummy to share.

We will need to begin planning for 2010. Will we stage PPR next year? We may want to discuss other options for fund raising. Where and when might we stage PPR?

From Bike for Life: How To Ride To 100, by Roy Wallack & Bill Katovsky:

HOW TO SURVIVE ROAD RAGE AND LOUSY DRIVERS
Over the years, I have been swerved at by young hot-rodders in California, honked at by malicious cretins in Montana, the object of thrown beer cans and firecrackers by Michigan motorists, knocked off my bike by a drowsy elderly man outside Ann Arbor, and nearly run over by a feckless 15-year-old driver in Nebraska who was learning to drive with his mother as his passenger.

Why is everyone in such a hurry? I might scold motorists if they are driving too close to me, or if they cut me off. But with road rage being all the rage these days, I've learned to look before leaping into an altercation. A bike is no match for a 7,000 pound SUV. Or even a driver carrying a gun. A study by the American Automobile Association (AAA) in 1997, found that 37 percent of road rage drivers used firearms against another driver, and 35 percent used their car as a weapon.

The rules of the road? The League of American Bicyclists offers an Emily Post-like guide to sensible riding when faced with road rage: "Remove yourself; make every attempt to get out of their way; yield lane position by turning or slowing down and getting behind them; be prepared to execute emergency maneuvers; do not return any gestures or shouts; do not make eye contact; do not push for proper lane position to avoid challenging the driver."

So swallow your pride. You can't change the behavior and driving habits of distracted or ill-mannered drivers. All you can do is keep your own eyes on the road, both hands on the handlebars, and your ego tightly fastened underneath your bike helmet. And report the miscreant's license plate and description to state and local police as fast as you can.

MEETING MINUTES September 12, 2009 meeting

The September 12th meeting of GVCC held at Tucker's Grove scheduled to start at 3:00pm was called to order by President Doris at 3:55pm in the hope that more GVCC'ers would be attending. The mail envelope bursting at the seams was circulated, Cheryl's treasurer's report was circulated and read into record and Doris was going to contact Lori and Robert and Brigitta regarding the ride calendar and bike path clean-up.

Moving right along through the printed agenda, Bob Zimels mentioned that Lou Ventura is once again assembling bicycles to be given away at Christmas time and perhaps some of the GVCC'ers could lend their expertise to this end.

Doris will contact Robert about getting the single page, double-sided GVCC info sheet out and into the local bike shops.

PPR 2010 was discussed briefly and by our November meeting (that's our next meeting), we will need to have a location and a full list of volunteers if this event is to occur.

Meeting was adjourned at 4:15pm.

Respectfully submitted, Hildy Hoffmann, Secretary
