

2010 People Powered Ride Merlot Metric Century Route Sheet

Follow Blue Arrows Total elevation gain = 5,342 feet or more

Please ride single file and follow all rules of the road.

In case of emergency call 911 or 805-570-3980 to reach ride organizers

Mile Description Start/Finish at Hans Christian Andersen Park

- 0.0 L on Chalk Hill
- 0.3 R on Fredensborg
- 0.6 R on Viborg
- 1.3 L on Alamo Pintado
- 5.3 Bear L onto Santa Barbara Avenue
- 6.2 L on Alamo Pintado/Steele
- 6.6 R on Foxen Canyon crossing SR 154, CAUTION – HIGH SPEED TRAFFIC
- 11.1 R at stop sign to stay on Foxen Canyon
- 16.9 L on Alisos Canyon (windmill)
- 23.4 R frontage rd (private unnamed) ride between the vineyard and US 101.
- 25.5 R at stop sign, continue under freeway to SR 135 north
- 25.6 R on Bell/SR 135 (at stop sign)
- 26.0 R on Centennial into Arthur Ferrini Park: REST STOP #1 open 7 am to 2 pm
- 26.0 S on Centennial (toward the flagpole) to Drum Canyon
Drum Canyon is a narrow, winding, lumpy road. Please use caution descending as there are cattle guards and two hairpin turns near the top. You will have a chance to pick up speed as you near the bottom where the road widens and is smooth.
- 29.3 S at summit of Drum Canyon CAUTION CATTLE GUARD
- 29.9 CAUTION CATTLE GUARD
- 35.3 R on SR 246
- 45.2 R into River Park
- 46.0 REST STOP #2 located past the lake at the end of the park road, open 9am to 3pm
- 46.8 R on SR 246
- 47.1 L on SR 1
- 48.6 L on Santa Rosa Road (Caution watch for oncoming high speed traffic)
- 65.1 R on SR 246
- 66.9 L on Ballard Canyon Road, CAUTION – HIGH SPEED TRAFFIC
- 68.9 R on Ballard Canyon Road at T, becomes Chalk Hill
- 70.2 R into FINISH at Hans Christian Andersen Park

Congratulations!! CHECK IN to get patch and plate for BBQ (served from 12 noon to 4pm)

ALL RIDERS MUST BE OFF THE COURSE BY 5 PM, NO EXCEPTIONS